

I support Satellite radio's provision for local weather and traffic. When we are attempting to reduce gridlock on Los Angeles freeways one of the best ways is better information. Waiting for the local AM radio station to broadcast all of their ads just to get the traffic is a waste of time and highways. I would rather pay $9.95 and reduce the congestion.